

This award is for a female-led business that has 1 to 4 employees and has shown excellence in growth, both financially and in the number of clients. The Micro Business of the Year demonstrates innovative ideas in business and marketing and may promote diversity and the role of women in their industry.